4. The detenu was involved in as many as (08) cheating cases since 2012 in the limits of Hyderabad and bordering Police Stations of Cyberabad, which are registered against him under various offences under the provisions of Chapter XVI, XVII and XXII of IPC, as such the activities of the individual fall under and within the meaning of "Goonda" as defined under sec. 2(g) of Act 1 of 1986. The detenu through his henchmen and agents used to represent that he had effective remedies for chronic and serious diseases like cancer etc., Thus, misleading and making false representations and cheating and used to collect huge sums of money from the patients and with their near ones. Further stated that to bring ring of credibility of his representation the detenu used to offer to return a substantial part of the amount received by him in case the treatment was not successful. All the incidents mentioned in the grounds of detention clearly substantiate as to how the acts of the detenu are prejudicial to the maintenance of public order. The Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad having satisfied that the activities of the detenu created a sense of fear, panic and insecurity in the minds of the public and prejudicial to maintenance of public order and having felt that launching of prosecution against the detenu, would not have the desired effect in preventing him from acting in any manner prejudicial to the maintenance of public order, has passed the order of detention by invoking the provisions under the said act. The Advisory Board after review of the case, has opined that there is sufficient cause for detention of the detenu. As such the individual deserves the maximum period of detention, as provided under sec.13 of the Act.
